RULES OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION COURT AT THE UKRAINIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

SECTION I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1. | INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION COURT AT THE UKRAINIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

1. The International Commercial Arbitration Court at the Ukrainian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (hereinafter – the ICAC) is an independent permanent arbitral institution (the Arbitration Court) operating under the Law of Ukraine “On International Commercial Arbitration”.
2. The ICAC has its seat in Kyiv, Ukraine.

ARTICLE 2. | APPLICATION OF THE RULES

1. The arbitral proceeding in the ICAC is being conducted in accordance with the ICAC Rules. The ICAC Rules shall be approved by the Presidium of the Ukrainian Chamber of Commerce and Industry on the proposal of the ICAC Presidium.
2. Where the parties have agreed to submit the dispute to the ICAC, they shall be ipso facto deemed to have agreed on applying to the Rules.
3. In any case where the parties have agreed to refer the dispute in accordance with the provisions of the ICAC Rules and have not agreed an arbitral institution or have inaccurately/incompletely specified the name of the ICAC, it is considered that the parties agree to submit the dispute to the ICAC.
4. For all matters not expressly provided in the ICAC Rules, the Arbitral Tribunal, parties, third parties and other parties involved in the arbitral proceedings (reporter, experts, interpreters, witnesses) shall act at all times in good faith, respecting the spirit of the ICAC Rules, and shall make every reasonable effort to ensure fair, expeditious and cost-effective final order of the dispute and enforceability of the Arbitral Award.

ARTICLE 3. | DISPUTES THAT MAY BE REFERRED TO THE ICAC FOR ARBITRATION

1. The parties to a dispute may agree to refer to the ICAC:
 - disputes arising out of contractual or other civil law relationships connected with foreign trade and other kinds of international economic business, including disputes involving individuals where the place of business of at least one of the parties is located abroad;
 - disputes between enterprises with foreign investment and international associations and organizations established in the territory of Ukraine or between members thereof, or disputes between them and other subjects of law of Ukraine.

The ICAC jurisdiction embraces, in particular:

- commercial relationships resulting in disputes that may be referred to the ICAC for arbitration shall include the following transactions and not limited to them, namely: relationships concerning purchase and sale (delivery) of goods, labour and other services; exchange of goods and/or services; carriage of goods and passengers; commercial representation and agency; rent (leasing); scientific and technological exchange;

- exchange of other intellectual products; construction of industrial and other objects; licensing operations; investment; crediting and settlement operations; insurance; joint ventures; and other forms of industrial and business cooperation.

2. The ICAC shall also accept for arbitration the disputes subject to the jurisdiction thereof by virtue of international agreements.

ARTICLE 4. | LEGAL GROUNDS FOR REFERRING DISPUTES TO THE ICAC FOR ARBITRATION

1. The ICAC shall accept for arbitration disputes subject to an agreement in writing (an undertaking) between the parties to refer to the ICAC all or certain disputes that have arisen or may arise between them in respect of a defined legal relationship, whether contractual or not. An arbitration agreement may be in the form of arbitration clause in a contract or in the form of a separate agreement.

The arbitration agreement shall be in writing. This agreement is considered to be entered into in writing, including electronic form, if it is contained in a document signed by the parties or in an exchange of letters, e-mails, provided that the information contained therein is available for further use, or communications by telex, telegrams, fax or other means of telecommunication which provide a record of such agreement, in an exchange of statements of claim and defence in which the existence of an agreement is alleged by one party and not denied by another. The reference in a contract to a document containing an arbitration clause constitutes an arbitration agreement provided that the contract is concluded in writing and this reference is such as to make that clause a part of the contract.

The arbitration clause, which forms a part of a contract, shall be treated as an agreement independent of the other terms of the contract. A decision by the Arbitral Tribunal that the contract is null and void shall not entail ipso jure the invalidity of the arbitration clause.

2. The issue of availability of legal grounds for referring with a claim to the ICAC for arbitration shall be decided by the President of the ICAC.

ARTICLE 5. | PLEAS AS TO THE ICAC JURISDICTION

1. The issue of the ICAC jurisdiction in a particular case shall be decided by the Arbitral Tribunal examining the case.
2. A plea that the ICAC does not have the jurisdiction shall be raised not later than the submission of the Statement of Defence. A party is not precluded from raising such a plea by the fact that he has appointed, or participated in the appointment of, an arbitrator.

A plea that the ICAC is exceeding the scope of its jurisdiction shall be raised as soon as the matter alleged to be beyond the scope of its jurisdiction is raised in the course of the arbitral proceedings.

The Arbitral Tribunal may in any of these cases accept for consideration a plea raised later, if the related delay is deemed justifiable.

3. The Arbitral Tribunal analyzing and considering the plea to its jurisdiction, including the plea based on an invalidity, ineffectiveness or loss of effect of an arbitration agreement shall determine and treat provisions of an arbitration agreement together with evidence produced by the parties.
4. The Arbitral Tribunal may rule on a plea referred to in part two of this article either as a preliminary question or in an award on the merits of the dispute.
5. If the Arbitral Tribunal rules as a preliminary question that it has jurisdiction, either party may request, within 30 days after having received such order of that ruling, the General Court of Appeal upon the ICAC's location to decide the matter, which decision shall be subject to no appeal.

While such a request is pending, the Arbitral Tribunal may continue the arbitral proceedings and make an award on the merits of the dispute.

1. The ICAC may require the parties or either of them to deposit an advance for the additional costs of the arbitral proceedings. The advance for the additional costs may be required by the ICAC from the party requesting an additional act likely to lead to additional costs to be incurred in the course of the proceedings, if such request is deemed justified.

2. The ICAC may make performance of any acts in the arbitration of a dispute subject to payment by the parties or either of them of an advance for the additional costs within a fixed period of time.
3. If a party appoints an arbitrator residing permanently out of the place of the hearings at the ICAC, that party shall be required to deposit an advance for the costs of the participation of such arbitrator in the arbitral proceedings (travelling expenses, accommodation, board, visa, and so on). If the party fails either to deposit the required advance within the fixed period of time or to appoint any other arbitrator whose participation in the arbitral proceedings does not entail additional costs, the party shall be deemed to have waived his right to appoint an arbitrator, and the President of the Ukrainian Chamber of Commerce and Industry shall appoint an arbitrator for such party.

If such person is acting as a presiding arbitrator or a sole arbitrator, the advance for the costs of his participation in the arbitral proceedings shall be deposited by both parties in equal amounts. If the Respondent fails to deposit his respective advance amount within the specified period of time, the Claimant shall be required to deposit such advance amount in full.

4. If, during the examination of the case, either of the parties requests the explanations and statements of the parties, or questions, comments, or directions of the Arbitral Tribunal to be translated, the costs of translation shall be met by that party.

The ICAC may require the respective party to deposit an advance for such costs.

5. If the arbitral proceedings in the case are conducted neither in Ukrainian, Russian nor in English languages, all possible costs of translation shall be charged to both parties in equal amounts.

The ICAC may require the respective party or both parties to deposit an advance for such costs.

6. If the parties have agreed that the hearings of the case shall be held outside the ICAC location, the parties shall bear solidary all additional costs connected with holding of hearings including travelling and accommodation expenses of arbitrators.

The ICAC may require the parties or either of them to preliminarily grant a respective guarantee to compensate for these costs as well as to deposit an advance for such costs.

Failing deposit of the required advance within the fixed period of time, the hearings of the case shall be held in the place of the ICAC location (Kyiv city).

SECTION VIII. EXPENSES OF THE PARTIES

1. Each party shall bear its own expenses specified in item 4 of Section I.
2. The expenses incurred by the successful party in connection with the protection of its interests in proceedings conducted at the ICAC (travelling expenses of the parties' representatives, lawyers' fees, and so on) may be charged to the other party to the extent that the Arbitral Tribunal determines that the amount of such costs is reasonable.
3. The request for reimbursement of the said expenses may not be claimed after the completion of the hearing of the case. The Arbitral Tribunal may set a time limit for justifying the amount of such expenses.

SECTION IX. DIFFERENT APPORTIONMENT OF ARBITRATION FEES AND COSTS

1. The ICAC may, taking into account the circumstances of a particular case, order a different apportionment of the arbitration fees, additional costs of the ICAC, and expenses of the parties than that specified in Sections VI-VIII of this Schedule, in particular, it may order one party to reimburse any additional expenses incurred by the other party through inappropriate or bad faith acts of such party, including acts causing unjustified delay in the arbitral proceedings.
